ORAL JUDGMENT

Shri H.J.Nanavati, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that the respective institutions have already approached the respondent No.1 for determining the fees structure for self financed C.P.Ed. Collages, however, no action has been taken till date, which is disputed by Shri D.R.Dave, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the respondent No.1. Without going into the said controversy, Shri H.J.Nanavati, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that the respective institutions will again approach the respondent No.1 with adequate material required for determining the fees structure for self financed C.P.Ed. Colleges by proper applications within a period of 2 weeks from today. On receipt of the said applications along with the required material, the respondent No.1 is directed to consider the same and fix the fees structure for self financed C.P.Ed. Collages as early as possible preferably within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of such applications after hearing one of the representative on behalf of all those institutions named by the petitioner. Shri H.J.Nanavati, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that one Shri Prahaladbhai Patel, Treasurer of the petitioner association, may be heard on behalf of all those self financed C.P.Ed. Colleges who will be making their applications as stated above. The respondent No.1 is directed to pass an appropriate order with regard to fixing the fees structure as stated above, after hearing the said Prahaladbhai Patel within a stipulated time as stated above.
